

TCVM for VETERINARY TECHNICIANS

Cover key elements to supporting and promoting TCVM services as a technician in an integrative veterinary practice

Acupuncture

Tui-na

Food Therapy

Herbal Medicine

Course Features

- 13 hours of online lectures available for 24/7 on-demand streaming for 2.5 months
- On-site wet labs and demos with live small animals
- Life-style portion of the on-site course includes Tai-ji, and other meditative exercises
- Complimentary lunches on-site (with vegetarian options)
- Class size capped at 30 students to allow for a more intimate learning environment

Curriculum

Yin-Yang

Eight Principles

Five Elements

Acupuncture: Scientific Basis

Zang-Fu Physiology

Energy Pathway: A Meridian System

TCVM Overview

Introduction to Dr. Han-ping's Tui-na Techniques

Wet Lab: Tui-na

Physical Therapies and the TCM Life Style

Food Therapy for Pets

10 Acupuncture Techniques and Procedures: Indications and Contraindications

Wet Lab: Vet Tech Acupuncture Protocols

What is Chinese Herbal Medicine? How to Administer Herbal Medicine to Pets

New Course

- chiu.edu -

$100

Discount for MVIMA Members

Dr. Chee May Wong Assistant Professor of Chi University

DVM, CVA, CVCH, CVTP, CVFT, CTCVMP, MSTCVM

Learn from the best

Schedule & Tuition

ONLINE JUN 1 - AUG 15, 2024

ON-SITE JUL 29 - JUL 31, 2024

$750

Malaysia

chiu.edu/courses/VTEC100_MYS

