CCRTA Board Retreat Agenda, February 20, 2026

Transportation agency board members play a critical role in guiding the agency’s vision, ensuring efficient operations, and upholding public accountability. As appointed leaders, they provide oversight, strategic direction, and stakeholder representation to support safe, reliable, and accessible transportation services. Through expert presentations, panel discussions, and interactive exercises, this training will deepen board members’ understanding of their responsibilities and equip them to navigate key challenges.
